Clear description of the incident in simple and direct terms is prepared and details are confirmed by the complainant. All notes are kept strictly confidential. Complainant's agreement is taken to proceed with the formal investigation.

The complainant is advised that although the process is confidential, the respondent needs to be informed and any witnesses and persons directly involved in the complaint process will also learn of the complainant's identity.

When a complaint is received, the Complaint Redressal Committee will:

- Obtain and record a full, step-by-step account of the incident/s

Informal resolution

Once the complaint is received regarding sexual harassment, the Committee may take steps to conciliate between the complainant and the respondent. It is possible, if a step is requested by the aggrieved person. It is just a practical mechanism through which issues are resolved or misunderstandings cleared. If an informal resolution is chosen by the complainant, the Complaint Redressal Committee will take recourse to the following process:

- Ensure both parties understand their rights and responsibilities under the organisation's policy.
- If possible, mediate an outcome that is satisfactory for the complainant.
- Ensure that confidentiality is maintained.
- Follow up to ensure the behaviour does not re-occur.

The Committee provides copies of the settlement to complainant & respondent. Once the action is implemented, it shall be recorded that no further enquiry shall be conducted on the complaint.

Formal investigation

If an informal resolution fails and a formal investigation is requested by the complainant, the Complaint Redressal Committee will take necessary steps to:

- Afford natural justice to all involved.
- Interview all directly concerned, separately.
- Interview witnesses, separately
- Keep records of the interviews and investigation
- Ensure confidentiality and minimise disclosure.
- Make a determination as to whether there is sufficient evidence that a reasonable person could conclude, on the balance of probabilities (i.e. it's more likely than not), that an incident/incident of sexual harassment has occurred.

Manner of inquiry

Complainant should submit the complaint along with supporting documents. Upon receipt of the complaint, the committee shall send one copy of the complaint to the respondent. The respondent receives the complaint and sends his/her reply to the committee. The Committee shall make an inquiry into the complaint in accordance with the principle of natural justice. While conducting the enquiry, minimum of three committee members including the president of the Committee should be present.

The decision of the committee is final. The employer is requested to take action on the respondent as recommended by the committee. No legal practitioner can represent any party at any stage of the inquiry.

During the process of formal investigation, Kandhamal Zilla Sabuja Vaidya Sangathan management shall determine an appropriate action, which may include a change of duties for the harasser and change to working arrangements.

If the incidents were frequent and/or severe, they may take recourse to the dismissal of the respondent.

The management will also continue to closely monitor the situation and provide further training to the staff, if required.

When the interim action is implemented, the employer shall inform the committee regarding the action taken.

Termination of inquiry

The committee may terminate the process of an enquiry if both the complainant and respondent are absent for three consecutive hearings without giving any reason in writing.
